

47 year old female presented with altered state of confusion. Her serum calcium was 19 mg/dl. She had raised serum globulins with Serum Protein Electrophoresis showing a monoclonal peak. X-ray Skull revealed punched out lesions and X-ray pelvis showed multiple lytic lesions in femur and pelvis. She was diagnosed with k-Light chain Multiple Myeloma.

Leung N, Gertz M, Kyle RA, et al. Urinary albumin excretion patterns of patients with cast nephropathy and other monoclonal gammopathyrelated kidney diseases. Clin J Am Soc Nephrol. 2012;7(12):1964-1968

Contribution:
Dr. Bilal basit
PG Trainee
Fatima memorial Hospital
Lahore , Pakistan

PJKD 2019(1):18